

Correlative Conjunctions

Correlative conjunctions are pairs of conjunctions that work together to coordinate two items.

Common Correlative Conjunctions:

both...and	either...or	not (only)...but (also)	neither ...nor
------------	-------------	-------------------------	----------------

Example: Both my sister and I will attend the party.

“my sister” → first item

“I” → second item

The correlative conjunction “Both” is used to coordinate the item “my sister”, while the correlative conjunction “and” is used to coordinate the item “I”.

Directions: try to fill in the blanks using the appropriate conjunction. Use commas where necessary.
